the to the Rest rattle Stop near ged Ave.

HARD FIGHT

Released from Old Warrant. Eastman and Brown Are Arrested on a New One, and Are Locked Up in the Tombs Until To-morrow.

AUTHORITIES OPPOSE BAIL LEST MEN RUN AWAY.

Counsel Declare They Will Fight Extradition, and Will Appear Before Gov. Odell in Albany if Necessary to Prevent Surrender of Men to New Jersev.

"Monk" Eastman and Joseph Brown. charged with victously assaulting James McMahon, former coachman for David Lamar, the Wall street broker, were discharged from custody by Police Magistrate Ommen to-day. But it was only a technical freedom that was given them and they enjoyed it only so long as it took to read and serve the warrant which was brought here to-day from Monmouth County, N. J., where the crime took place.

The proceedings were enlivened by a battle of words between Thomas Grady counsel for the defendants, and Assistant District-Attorney Johnstone that asted for over an hour.

Take Advantage of Fresh Delay.

"Undre this new order of things," Mr. Grady declared, "we will now avail ourselves of our right to a postponement of a hearing for one day," and there was nothing left for the Court to do

"We will not make an application for a writ of habeas corpus under this new warrant," said Mr. Grady, "so Mr. Johnstone may calm himself. We will, however, apply to the Supreme Court to fix

"That's it," said Johnstone

"I can't help it," said the Court.
The police say that they are informed that there will be no lack of money for this purpose and suspect a scheme to smuggle the defendants out of the purisdiction of the State once they are re-

Eastman Is Interviewed.

"G'wan," said "Monk" Eastman to a for The Evening World, who oke to him in the courtroom to-day. I never knew dis feller Lammer or Lamar, an' if he come in here now an' rapped me on de conk (head). I wouldn't know him. I never seen dis fellow, Mc-Mahon, dey say I done; not until he Newburger, was arrested to-day by Deidentified me. Dat identification's all right. If yer ever was in Police Headlook at a pitcher an' den go out an' say pected that Bergen, who was at liberty youse or any one else is de one dat de under $1,500 bail, would come into court pitcher represents. All cops is liars, an and-plead guilty, as Jantzen did. At the fat feller McClusky's de worst in de crucial moment Bergen did not appear

It has been a long time since the forfeited and issued a bench warrant Tombs Court has been so crowded, for his arrest. and the police had some little difficulty | In court to-day Bergen's attorney inin handling the large number who formed Judge Newburger that neither thronged to hear the case. There was Bergen nor his bondsman, James Margathering of "Monk" Eastman's rin, of No. 434 West Thirty-fifth street. had been notified to be in court yester-

While Eastman was standing near the day. The District-Attorney's represenwindow in the court-room, awaiting his tative did not deny this statement and tective Sergt. McCafferty talking to Detective Sergt. Finley, a few feet away. Take that fellow away from me.' Bastman exclaimed. Casting a glance full of hate at McCafferty, he started to walk away from the window, bu court officers pushed him back. The detective ignored Eastman, who, unable to control his rage at sight of the mar who has arrested him several times, kept glaring at the officer and muttering t

George W. Van Winkle, a constable of Little Ellen Lynch Toppled Off on Long Branch, who was in court, said to

"I stood within four feet of McMahor when he was assaulted and I can't be mistaken as to the identity of the two

"Eastman turned and struck me blow in the neck, and as he did I got a good look at him. I couldn't fail to cognize either of them."

Other Prisoners Sought.

The detectives admitted to-day that they are looking for Abe Klein of No. 176 East Seventy-sixth street; Harry Lewis, of No. 220 East Second street and George Weld, of No. 229 West Thirty-ninth street, all of whom were arrested on July 4 with "Monk East-in declaring that their charges against David Lamar of hiring the thugs, Monk" Eastman and Joseph Brown to assault the broker's former coachman, James McMahon, is based only on the evidence collected there is a firm con viction in certain Wall street circles that the animus of the allegation is to schooner Foster Rice, Capt. Brinton, from Barbados via Arroyo, P. R., for St. John, N. B., arrived here to-day in tow of the British steamer Ocamo, Capt. Fraser, from St. John, N. B., and Hallfax, N. S. The Foster Rice was dismasted on the 24th inst. during a gale which she encountered, and was picked up by the Ccamo on the 25th. be found in the enemity of a powerfu financial clique with whose interests speculative operations have

Lamar spent last night at the

"MONK" EASTMAN AND BROWN IN COURT AND TWO RESIDENCES OF DAVID LAMAR. HAS NO ACCENT,

To establish Lamar's connection with the McMahon assault through his movenents in this city, the police have been

BROTHER-IN-LAW SUBWAY WILL BE OF DEVERY ARRESTED READY APRIL 1

Michael J. Bergen, Indicted in William Barclay Parsons and Connection with the Al Adams John B. McDonald Say Strikes Policy Raids, Brought Into Have Delayed the Completion Court on a Bench Warrant. of the Great Ditch.

discussing the charges against him with the storm broke.

friend, and refused to go inside when

He ordered a team at dinner-time, Mr.

Darrin says, and drove away. The team was returned by another man later in Looking for Thompson.

tective Robert McNaught.

of the bond vacated, recalling the Sher-

John J. Byrne, "Big Bill's" nephew, furnished a new bond for Bergen and

Her Head and Died Soon

Afterward.

The usually considered harmless see-

Ellen Lynch, of No. 63 Fulton street

pled off just as the end she occupied reached its highest point from the pave-

In falling she turned over, alighting on top of her head. The shock injured her spine, and the doctor who was called could keep her alive only a few action.

Secretary Root, by invitation, briefly addressed the board, saying that he believed good results would come from its deliberations.
The board adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

Schooner Towed to Port.

schooner Foster Rice, Capt. Brinton

BERMUDA, July 31.—The British

FROM A SEE-SAW.

he was released.

hours.

KILLED BY FALL

Michael J. Bergen. "Big Bill" Devery's brother-in-law, who was indicted with Al Adams and Dolph Janzen for conducting policy and for whom a bench fifteen minutes later find himself in chance to shoot at a burglar. She got ducting policy and for whom a bench warrant was issued yesterday by Judge Harlem. Then when the labor troubles were at their height the date of completion was moved along to some time in January and to-day the contractors say Bergen's case was on Judge Newburquarters youse'd know. Dey just take a ger's calendar yesterday and it was ex- that it will be impossible to finish the William Barclay Parsons and John B. McDonald attribute the setback to their plans to the strikes of the excavators. These disturbances, they say, could not be foreseen and New York will have to be patient "a little while longer." fore April 1. and Judge Newburger ordered his bond and Ex-Champion Sprinter Expires low and jumped out of bed. The burglar Suddenly at His Home.

"TOMMY" LEE DEAD FROM HEART DISEASE.

Editor of The Evening World, and a went. Just as he left Mrs. Shober shot valued member of The World staff for at him. In the street he was joined by several years, died at 9.25 A. M. to-day at his home, No. 160 East Forty-sixth and all vanished in the darkness. street. Heart failure caused his death. married. His mother, sister and two STUPEFIED MAN He was thirty-three years old and unrothers survive him.

"Tommy" Lee, as everybody knew him, was well known in sporting circles throughout the United States and Canada. He was the champion 100-yard sprinter of America in the nineties and had a record for the dash of 10 seconds saw caused the death of eight-year-old flat. He was a member of the New York Athletic Club, and was one of the Brooklyn, to-day. She was playing on a see-saw in front of her home and top-American team that beat the London A. C. athletes so decisively at Manhatton field several years ago. About ten years ago "Tommy" quit the cinder path and turned his attention to journalistic work. His first news-paper work was done on the Evening Telegram, where he remained until he toined The World's sporting staff. He was an able writer on all sporting topics, and enjoyed a wide acquaintance and George Weld, of No. 229 West Thirty-ninth street, all of whom were arrested on July 4 with "Monk Eastman and subsequently discharged in the Jefferson Market Police Court. The detectives sail they have warrants for the arrest of two of the trio named.

Counsel for Eastman and Brown say they expect the proceedings in the police court will terminate in the holding of the two defendants to await extradition papers, in which event they will go before Gov. Odell to oppose granting them.

As was anticipated, when the adlourned hearing came up before Justice Bischoff in the Supreme Court this afternoon the application for writs of sabeas corpus and certiforari was dismissed by consent of both sides. No
the police court examination to-morrow.

Meanwhile Eastman and Brown
are Market Scores are not well before are man and subsequently discharged in the Jefferson Market Police Court.

All the proceedings in the pomeeting of the General Policy Board of the War and Navy departments has been held. There were present Admiral Dewey, Rear Aumiral Taylor, Capt.
Pillsbury, Commander Barnett, Majorfeen. Corbin. Brig-Gen. Randolph and Brig.-Gen. Bliss. Major-Gen. Young.
There was a general discussion of coalternoon the application for writs of sabeas corpus and certiforari was dismissed by consent of both sides. No missed by consent of both sides. No
the police court examination to-morrow.

Meanwhile Eastman and Brown
are Booked up in the Tukson Street

Action of several years as sargat lover of music,
and for several years as sargat lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several years as a sarget lover of music,
and for several

Fire in Saratoga Cottage. (Special to The Evening World.)

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 31.—There was a small fire to-day in the Ryan cottage, on South Broadway. The damage was founder of the Catholic University tage, on South Broadway. The damage was small it is leased for the season Arbitration Commission, appointed by Mrs. Louise Haskell, who arrived president Roosevelt during the anthratical Broadlyn, Jersey City, Helposter of the Broadlyn, Jersey City, Helposter of the

GOT HER CHANCE TO PIGEON STOPPED SHOOT AT BURGLAR

Mrs. Shober Had Long Wished It. and When It Came She Blazed Away Bravely, but Did Not Hit Him.

it at 2 o'clock this morning and fired the shot, but she didn't hit the burgiar.

work and have trains in operation be- They cut a hole in a cellar window and one of its wandering tails reached out and wrapped itself around the hourshall. Then be went to work on a small safe in the corper of the room in which Mrs. Shober keeps jeweiry and valuable papers.

In his manipulation of the combination of the saf the burglar made noise enough to awaken Mrs. Shober, she grabbed a revolver from under her pllow and jumped out of bed. The burglar by this time was out in the hall. On the went, Just as he left Mrs. Shober shot if at him. In the street he was joined by the two men who had been on watch, and all vanished in the darkness.

STUPEFIED MAN

DIES IN HOSPITAL

Another, Who Was Crushed Between Gar and Truck, Succumbs to His Injuries.

Another, Who Was Crushed Between Gar and Truck, Succumbs to His Injuries.

One of its wandering tails reached out and wrapped itself around the hour the and wrapped itself around the hour the reamed out like a permant.

The went to work on a small safe in the corper of the room in which Mrs. Shober shot is the string guite of which this prank on the clock was not house of the surple of the surple of the string with it was winding its the string with the was winding its the string with the was trapped. Its dot somewhere in he legistation to free itself only served to emens in the more.

"Look! Look!" somewhere in the neighbour in instant the bird was trapped. Its difforts to free itself only served to emens in the more instant the bird was trapped. Its difforts to free itself only served to emens in the more were exhausted from want of food and the string was held. The difforts to free itself only served to emens in the more were exhausted from want of food and the string was the fluttering thing. The was trapped. Its difforts to free itself only served to emens in the more. Hours was a hard was ported to was a difficult one was capital.

The condition and the string and stringled and struggled and struggled and struggled and struggled. The bird book loose from its fastening and settled in a niche of the spire, too tired to continue its flight turn to go to the bar, he noticed De- Judge Newburger ordered the forfeiture Sporting Editor of Evening World grabbed a revolver from under her all-Thomas Isaac Ludium Lee, Sporting front door and out the front door he

Car and Truck, Succumbs to His Injuries.

een induced by alcoholism, caused the death in the Hudson Street Hospital early to-day of John Monahan, of No. 109 Washington street. The man was found in a stupefied condition at the Chambers street ferry yesterday afternoon, and after being taken to the Leonard street police station was found to be ill and removed to the hospital. Patrick Kennehan, picked up at pier 9 yesterday afternoon in a delirious condition, died to-day in the Hudson Street Hospital. While on the footboard of a belt line car he was crushed between the car and a meat truck driven by tions, he was the oldest college graduate in the United States.

HARLEM BOATMEN AND SO IS FREE

He Was a Salesman, Had Been In

Bad Health, and on Monday Left

His Employment Too III to been missing from his home in Lenox avenue, near One Hundred and Twelfth street, eince Monday, was found jo-day and Fifty-fifth street. Stitch was em and going home. His employers think he jumped into the river

The probabilities are that he jumped

He was about forty-five years old

He had been in ill health for some time.

CREW OF THIRTEEN

ON CAPSIZED SHIP.

Rescued at Sea by an Oil Tanker, Exhausted by Four Days' of the Harlem River at One Hundred

They Had Been Watching Since Man Who Robbed Mrs. Slopebersky Spoke English Imper-Monday for Body of Man Who Was Seen Jumping from feetly, and the Man She Accused Speaks Perfectly, Washington Bridge.

JAC. SUMMERS DISCHARGED. SUICIDE WAS LOUIS J. STITCH

Magistrate Cornell Is Moved to Comment on the Feminine Defect Which Makes Them Failures in Identifications.

Jacob Summer, of No. 179 Clinton treet, who was arraigned before Magistrate Cornell in Essex Market Court to-day on the charge of stealing a gold watch and a brooch, valued at $56, from Mrs. Rose Stopobersky, of No. 16t Clinton, on July 25, owes his discharge to ployed as a salesman in the hat house ton, on July 25, owes his a german, of Elehold & Miller, No. 727 Broadway the fact that although he is a german, He left there Monday, saying he was ince severing his connection with the fact that although he is a german, arker House Thompson has been increased in a saloon at seventh avenue accout. Mrs. Stoposersky testified that address rom there with Lamar to the east side o'clock to secure her services as a 'clock to secure her services as a

ST. MARK'S CLOCK

Bird Became Entangled with a of the Dial.

A stray pigeon and a piece of string set back the clock hands on St. Mark's Church, in Stuyvesant Square, to-day, interrupted traffic and incidentally made a great many people late for work.

A gust of wind had huried a yard of quantity of jewelry.

There were three burglars in fact. They cut a hole in a cellar window and one of them went into the house while the others watched outside. Mrs. Shober was alone with the servants.

The burglar went to her room, secured her purse from a dresser drawer and scooped up all the jewelry in sight.

nom they had to report:
"Made late watching the time!"

Americus Lodge Outing.

The ninth annual clambake of th Americus Lodge Association, scheduled for to-morrow at Witzel's Grove, College Point, will be well attended. The steamboat Sea Gull will leave the foot of West Twentieth street at 1 P. M., and the foot of East Thirty-first street at 2 P. M.

No other reason could have impelled him to suicide in the judgment of his employers and his family. Another body was found in the Har-iem River three days ago at the foot of One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street. It has not been identified.

Piece of Twine that Had Blown Around the Hour Hand

> (Special to The Evening World.) WILMINGTON, Del., July 30 .- When the oil tanker Lelion cast anchor at Marcus Hook to-day thirteen men rejoiced that they reached port once more They were the crew of the bark Vermont who for four days and nights ex-price marked on the ticket. Drop in to talk it over.

Broadway-22d Street. Sixth Avenue-12th Street,

S. W. Cor. Futton and Nation Str.,

Semi-yearly Clearance Sale

Our Twenty-first

Is now at its height—such unusual values in

BYCK BROS Smart Clothes

were bound to attract a large number of buyers, not only from among our regular customers, but also from numbers of men, who take advantage of our semi-yearly sales every season, to buy the finest and smartest clothes at from one-third to onehalf less than regular prices.

MEN'S FASHIONABLE SUITS.

Every one a perfect specimen of high-grade tailoring. The fabrica nclude Spring, medium and Summer weight Woolens, Serges and Worsteds. The wide variety in sizes and styles will enable us to fit you as perfectly as though the clothes were made-to-your-measure-whatever your buildregular, short, stout or slender.

BYCK BROS $12.00 and $15.00 Smart Suits at ... $ 9.25 BYCK-BROS $18.00 and $20.00 Smart Suits at .... 11.75 BYCK BROS $22.00 and $25.00 Smart Suits at .... 14.50

BYCK BROS $27.00 to $30.00 Smart Suits at... 16.25 MEN'S FASHIONABLE TOP COATS AND OTHER LIGHT-WEIGHT OVERCOATS AT PROPORTIONATE REDUCTIONS.

COAT-AND-TROUSERS SUITS,

made from the smartest Summer fabrics, light-weight, but serviceable. Coats with shapely lapels and broad shoulders.

BYCKBROS. $8.00 and $9.00 Smart Coats and Trousers at $5.75

BYCK BROS $12.00 and $15.00 Smart Coats and Trousers at 8.50 BYCK BROS. $18.00 and $20,00 Smart Coats and Trousers at 11.25

CORRECT EVENING DRESS CLOTHES.

BYCK-BROS $30.00 Evening Dress Suits at ... $21.75 BYCK-BROS $18.00 Tuxedo or Dinner Coats at -11.50

SUPERBLY TAILORED TROUSERS.

BYCK BROS. $5.00 and $5.50 Trousers at.....$3.25 $7.00 and $7.50 Trousers at..... 4.50 BYCK BROS $8.00 and $9.00 Trousers at ..... 5.75

WASHABLE VESTS, SUMMER COATS

have been reduced from one-third to one-half the regular prices. IN FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT

you will find even deeper cutting in prices than in our clothing depart

Example: "Manhattan" Shirts at $1.19.

Hats: Straws, Derbys and Soft-half-price.

Every article offered in this sale is of this Season's latest style. All necessary alterations will be made promptly and without ch The purchase price for any article bought at this sale, and brought back promptly, will be returned upon request.

BYCK BROS

S. W. Cor. Fukon and Nassau Sts.,

UPTOWN (Open Evenings), DOWNTOWN, near 3rd Ave.

NOTE.—Another store will be opened by us early this Autumn, at 31 Cortlandt St., just a step from the Sixth Ave. "L" Station.

candles we mean the good, wholesome and pure kinds. We suppose a great deal finds its way countryward, but the vast army of "stay-at-homes" need sweetening as well. For the lucky vacationists and their less fortunate brothers we have gotten together a list of tempting sorts that will give absolute satisfaction and suit all pockets.

CHOCOLATE-COVERED PERSIAN DATES—You know and probably love the good old chocolate-covered nougatines, marshmallows and mixed chocolates—most people do; but no doubt you like a change occasion-cial would simply mean wasting your time and ours. Suffice to say that their whirlwind sale is absolute proof of their unquestioned worth. On sale SATURDAY only.................................LB. 10c SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

born in 1810, and for sixty years and the principle of the base of his life, though he was in great pain and in probable knowledge of the peril that lay before him, he abated none of his Lebanon. Mr. Spalding had the distinction of being the oldest graduate of a word of repining. The gay courage that had borne him so often to victory carried him unafraid and uncomplaining to death.

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

ORANGE JELLY GUMS:

ORANGE

Post 54 BARCLAY ST. We will deliver any or all of the above specials at the

ITALIAN CREAM CHOCOLATES.....LB. 30e

Made of fine vici kid on neat, shapely last, with patent leather or vici kid tips; London toes, high Cuban heels and small extension oak soles; biggest possible value. Four large well stocked stores, a factory that shull poor leather and poor workmen, all under one ears out poor leather and poor workmen, all under one earnest, capable management, which sees the advantages of making shoes of all grades—catering to the shoe wants of all the people rather than to any one small class—a management which fully realizes that large sales and small profits are the only successful trade magnets of modern merchandising. Oxfords for flen and Women, $1.50 to $4

6th Ave., Southwest cor. 27th St. Third Ave., Southwest cor. 122d St. EASY TO 609 Eighth Ave., 39th & 40th Streets.

WORLD VACATION BUREAU NOW OPEN,

1881 BROADWAY, NEAR SSTH STREET, NEW YORK

Style 1464 La-dies Oxford, of vici kid, patent leather tip, 1% inch high Cuban heel, London toe, hand welted, amail ex-tension sole...

BLYN & SONS, GUARANTET STORES

162 Bowery, Near Broome Street, es: 401, 403, 405 East 91st St.